

Shipping Policy

Home Shipping Policy

Shipping And Delivery

- In case we are yet to start delivery and post sales services in your city, whenever Kraft-Obench finds it operationally possible, we may deliver the product at your doorstep (provided a) You make advance payment of the entire order amount at the time of placing the order and b) the transportation cost is borne by you at actuals in advance). For such areas we will not be able to provide installation service and the products will not be covered under any warranty. However, at Kraft-Obench's sole discretion, Kraft-Obench may solve any post sales related issues and provide installation services, provided you get the product to the nearest Delivery Center at your own cost and risk. Please get in touch at info@kraft-obench.com for further enquiries.
- Please note Kraft-Obench does not give any kind of After Sales service where the sales have been made to business or corporate offices.
- The prices on website are subject to price fluctuations, due to various factors. Once an order is placed by you, you will be liable to pay such amount as confirmed by the Sales Team or Website on the date of the order and the invoice.
- We deliver to certain pin codes only conditionally. In such cases, you may need to make an advance payment to be eligible for delivery. For such locations, warranty, and after-sales service will also not be available. To know the exact conditions for your delivery location, please write it to info@kraft-obench.com
- All services are provided on an "as is" basis. Kraft-Obench makes no warranties, whether express or implied, in relation to the services, in particular those of merchantability, non-infringement or fitness for purpose.

